

EVENTS AT DHHRM

Dallas Holocaust and Human Rights Museum

Located in Dallas's Historic West End District, the Dallas Holocaust and Human Rights Museum is an impressive location for a corporate or social event. The Museum's unique combination of history and human rights offers guests a beautiful and awe-inspiring venue for a memorable event.

CORPORATE MEETINGS, SPECIAL EVENTS & MORE

The museum's expansive Lobby and Courtyard are excellent spaces for corporate dinners or company-wide holiday parties, while our Theater and Classrooms, both equipped with A/V connections, host flawless panel discussions and presentations. Our Covered Terrace is an alternative outdoor option with unobstructed views of the Margaret Hunt Hill Bridge and Margaret McDermott Bridge. Learn more about our capacity and rates below!

ROOM	CAPACITY	MID-WEEK	WEEKEND
Entire Museum <small>Includes admission to all exhibitions</small>	—	$10,000	$12,000
Lobby	300 Standing ▪ 150 Seated	$1,500 - $3,000	$2,000 - $3,500
Courtyard	280 Standing	$1,500 - $3,000	$2,000 - $3,500
Covered Terrace	240 Standing ▪ 85 Seated	$750 - $1,200	$1,000 - $1,500
Classrooms (2)	40 People/Room	$250	$300 - $500
Theater	242 Seated	$1,500 - $3,000	$2,000 - $3,500
Exhibition Wings (3) <small>Includes admission to rented areas &amp; Special Exhibitions</small>	—	$500 Each	$500 Each

Museum facility rental rates are based on four (4) hours, and include a dedicated Special Events Manager and tables and chairs for up to 200 guests. Security fees apply and vary depending on attendance and other needs. All catering and event rental needs are managed by FGF. Non-profit rates available. Please contact for more information.